University of the South Student Selected for Internship with Coughlin Associates

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, June 16, 2005 – Barring Coughlin CFA, President of Coughlin Associates, has selected Miles Gerald Valerian Wellesley to fill the summer internship position with Coughlin Associates.

Miles is currently a student at the University of the South and was selected for this position based upon his skills, knowledge, background and investment interest.

“After interviewing numerous candidates, Miles showed a tremendous knowledge of investments and has a strong desire to learn more about investment research,” said Barring Coughlin, a 1968 graduate of the University of the South. “I am pleased to have an intern on my staff from Sewanee. It’s a wonderful school, and he is already adding value to our practice.”

“I feel privileged to have been chosen for this position with a firm such as Coughlin Associates,” said Miles. “I am eager to work beside such a well respected investment professional as Barring Coughlin. I expect to gain significant experience this summer and am appreciative of such an opportunity.”

Miles has excelled academically and is currently a senior at the University of the South, with a double major in Economics and Music. He is a member of the Kappa Alpha Order Fraternity and is originally from Jacksonville, Alabama.

Miles will complete Coughlin Associates’ internship program in August and will return to Sewanee, Tennessee at that time.
